

Operating a system composed of more than 15,500 miles of high-voltage transmission lines and 1,450 transmission substations, Entergy's Transmission business provides top-quartile cost performance and is recognized by the marketplace for delivery reliability.

The Transmission group is comprised of the following departments:

- Technology Delivery
- Transmission Policy
- Asset Management
- Engineering & Construction and Project Management Operations
- Transmission System Operations

JOB PROFILE

Programming and analyst service in a team based setting to support the design, installation, operations and maintenance of the Transmission business customer applications.

Engineering service in a team based setting to support the design, installation, operations and maintenance of Transmission facilities. Develop technical proficiency in transmission, system protection and control and substation design through creativity and innovation while gaining business knowledge and understanding the internal and external customer focus.

Real time operations of Entergy's transmission system to operate the generator imbalance desk, the scheduling desks and the transmission desks. Operate the Entergy control area in compliance with FERC, NERC, and SERC policies. Sales, reservation and scheduling of transmission service. Monitoring and maintaining the reliability and security of the Entergy transmission system.

PROFILE REQUIREMENTS

GPA 3.0 or above

B.S. in electrical, mechanical or civil engineering

Computer skills – familiar with various databases, as well as Windows environment and Microsoft toolkit (Word, Access, Excel, PowerPoint)

LOCATIONS

Arkansas
Louisiana
Mississippi
Texas

Quick Facts about Entergy:

Fortune 500 Company

14,000+ Employees

Annual revenues of over $10 billion

Second largest nuclear generator in US

Owns and operates power plants- 30,000 megawatts of electric generating capacity

Service State Territories:
New York, Vermont, Massachusetts, Michigan, Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas

Safety is Entergy's #1 priority

Industry leader & social advocate

