

Utility Operations

Entergy's Distribution Business is the entity that owns the wires that make the electrical connection between customers and the transmission system, and sells energy and related services.

The Distribution group is comprised of the following departments:

- Construction & Design
- Area Distribution Substation
- Asset Planning

ENGINEERS

JOB PROFILE

Distribution system design development, customer technical interface, material and equipment specification, project costing, and work management systems design development and support. Reliability performance assessment, improvement analysis, infrastructure/capacity planning and power quality analysis.

PROFILE REQUIREMENTS

GPA 3.0 or above. BS in Electrical Engineering. Computer skills – familiar with various databases, as well as Windows environment and Microsoft toolkit (Word, Access, Excel, PowerPoint).

ENGINEERING ASSOCIATES

JOB PROFILE

Distribution system design development, customer technical interface, material and equipment specification, project costing, and work management systems design development and support.

PROFILE REQUIREMENTS

GPA 3.0 or above. BS in Engineering Technology or Industrial Technology. Computer skills – familiar with various computer applications, including the Windows environment, Microsoft toolkit (Word, Access, Excel, PowerPoint) and Computer Aided Drafting.

LOCATIONS

Arkansas
Louisiana
Mississippi
Texas

To apply, please submit your on-line resume and application to www.entergy.com.

